PETITIONING THE COURT

☒ To issue a warrant

☐ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation of Standard Condition No. 6: "The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment."

Violation of Special Condition: "The defendant shall live at a place approved by the probation officer. If the defendant plans to change where he or she lives or anything about his or her living arrangements (such as the people the defendant lives with), the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days before change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change."

Nature of Noncompliance: On July 10, 2019, the probation officer spoke to Ambert's roommate who verified that Ambert had moved out of the residence on June 7, 2019. As of this writing, Ambert has failed to provide a new address to the probation officer.

Violation of Mandatory Condition No. 2: "The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime."

Nature of Noncompliance: On June 29, 2019, officers from the Georgetown Police Department (GPD) responded to a call on a suspected assault occurring at 120 River Bend in Georgetown, Texas. According to the police report, the victim was Alexandria Thomas, later identified as Ambert's girlfriend. According to the police report, Thomas called her father notifying him of the assault and asking him to call the police as Ambert continued to take her phone from her. Thomas' father called GPD and reported the assault. Law enforcement was dispatched to the residence and observed Ambert driving a vehicle, while the victim/passenger was attempting to exit the vehicle. Officers then initiated a traffic stop. While conducting the investigation, officers took separate statements from both Ambert and the victim. The victim stated that Ambert struck her with a closed fist on the right side of her face. Additionally, Ambert allegedly grabbed the victim's neck. Officers observed injuries on the victim's body. Ambert was charged with Assault Causes Bodily Injury Family Violence, a 3rd degree felony (Cause No. 19-1519-K26). Ambert was arrested by GPD and transported to the Williamson County Jail.

Ambert remains in the Williamson County Jail pending the posting of a $40,000 bond.
